Democrats Will Live Up to the Denver Declaration.

VISIT TO BRYAN'S HOME

Chairman To Be Elected in Chicago on July 25th.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 15.—Members of the Democratic National Committee and a number of others holding proxies conferred with W. J. Bryan and J. W. Kern, the Presidential and Vice Presidential nominees, respectively, at the Bryan home yesterday with reference to vital matters of campaign management.

At the suggestion of Mr. Bryan the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Democratic National Committee, in pursuance of the pledges given in the national platform recently adopted at Denver, announces that it will accept no contributions whatever from corporations; that it will accept no individual contributions above $10,000 and that it will make public before the election all individual collections above $100, contributions received before October 15 being published on or before that date, and contributions received after that date being published upon the date on which they are received and that no contributions above $100 shall be accepted within three days of the election."

The subcommittee adjourned to meet in Chicago July 25, when the chairman of the National Committee will be selected. Josephus Daniels was made secretary of the subcommittee.

The statement that Mr. Bryan will not make a canvass is incorrect. It is his present purpose, however, to deliver no platform speeches, but to make ten or a dozen political addresses, dealing with the more vital issues as presented in the platform.

Mr. Kern will make a more continuous campaign, and it was assured in Denver that Mr. Towne will be no less active than if he had been the vice presidential nominee.

THREATS TO JAIL SOLDIERS

Sheriff of Logan County Is Highly Incensed at Troops.

A WELL-BEHAVED MOB

Was Anxious to Lynch a Negro Murderer Monday Night.

Russellville, Ky., July 15.—The county officials outwitted a mob which came here Monday night to lynch Rufus Browder, colored, who killed James T. Cunningham, a farmer, near Keysburg, Monday. The mob of masked men found that Browder had been secretly taken from jail, and Tuesday morning it was announced that he had been taken to Bowling Green for safe keeping.

Fearing a conflict between the civil and military authorities, Maj. Bassett having appeared on the scene about 4 o'clock Tuesday morning, without the knowledge, consent or desire of the local authorities, Sheriff Rhea informed Maj. Bassett that if he or his soldiers interfered or attempted to do anything without the civil officers requested it to be done he would put him and his men in jail if he could get men enough to help him do it, and he thought he could.

It was learned yesterday afternoon that bands of soldiers were patrolling the southern part of this county without the knowledge of the local authorities and without there being any need for them by the authorities or anyone else.

The mob was orderly and well behaved, and there seemed to be no drinking among the crowd. The killing was an unprovoked murder, and the people generally are greatly incensed over the matter, but no further trouble is feared. Judge Sandridge has called a special term of the Circuit Court for August 3.

Shot By Train Flagman.

Madisonville, Ky., June 13.—Flagman Werd Stodghill, of the interurban train, was compelled Saturday afternoon to shoot and kill a negro. After the train left Madisonville, and before it had scarcely gotten outside of the city limits, Charles Osburn became obstreperous. When asked to behave himself he became infuriated, grabbed Stodghill around the neck, was dragging him to the door of the coach when the flagman managed to get hold of his pistol. Firing at close range, he shot Osburn through the bowels. The negro was taken to Earlinton, where he died.

Tennessee Lynching.

Nashville, Tenn., July 15.—A Middleton, Tenn., dispatch says: Hugh Jones, a negro, was strung up to a sapling limb near that place by a mob of 100 men at daylight yesterday morning. Jones had attempted to assault Miss Ora Yoppes, aged seventeen. He was captured at Lagrange and was being brought to Middleton by special deputies when the mob appeared and took charge of the prisoner.

TWO CONTESTS.

Some of the best players of old time music in the State will participate, and it goes without the saying that the entertainments will be largely attended.

At the evening contest Prof. J. LeRoy Shrode, the celebrated comedian and slight-of-hand performer, will also entertain.

TWO MINUTE SKETCHES

Giuseppe Garibaldi.

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

A filibuster for the good of his country.

Garibaldi was always a filibuster, but he filibustered not in quest of loot or personal power, but for the good of his own country. That Italy is today a strong, united nation rather than a group of petty principalities, or dependencies of other powers is due to very large measure to the labor of Garibaldi.

Garibaldi was a man with a mission, and he could not be kept down. For half a century his soul was centered upon the unification and liberation of Italy, and for the greater part of that period he was fighting for his cause.

California grows a flower named the garibaldi because it is red. The followers of Garibaldi were red as their distinctive color of dress. The Garibaldi red shirt, famous in history, stood for united Italy. It was the red badge of liberty through unification.

Garibaldi, who was a sailor's son and given to roving, became identified early in life with Mazzini and other exiles in the Young Italy movement. But the methods of Garibaldi were not those of Mazzini, who was unable to compromise by accepting unification of the Italian states under a monarch, so insistent was he for a republican government. Garibaldi was a republican, but he was willing to accept a benevolent monarchy as a means to an end—the protection and development of the Italian people.

Condemned to death for his part in the earlier uprisings, Garibaldi escaped to France and thence to South America, where he presently found opportunity to continue his career as a warrior in opposition to tyranny. He fought for the new republic of Uruguay against the usurpation of the Argentine dictator. Then he made his way to the United States, an exile from home, earning his living as a maker of candles and declining the honor of a demonstration such as the one given to him by the Italian people.

Back to Italy went Garibaldi when the time was ripe, raising band after band of followers, conquering the Neapolitan provinces in the cause of unification and finally, absolute master of Naples, relinquishing voluntarily to King Victor Emmanuel his own sovereignty for the good of Italy. There, indeed, was a patriot with no price tag attached to his red shirt.

Miss Buford Wilkins, cashier at the Cumberland Telephone Co.'s office, was married in Nashville, Tenn., June 9 to Mr. Will W. Blythe, an employee of the same company at Memphis, who is a Hopkinsville young man. Accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Russell, Miss Wilkins went to Nashville to meet Mr. Blythe, but consented to retain her position here for a month, until a successor could be arranged for. Mr. Blythe arrived here Sunday to claim his bride. They are visiting in the city and will leave for Memphis to-morrow.

DR. BEN LETCHER PASSES AWAY.

Was Former Superintendent of the Western Kentucky Asylum.

WAS 76 YEARS OF AGE.

Came to Henderson More Than Fifty Years Ago.

Henderson, July 15.—Dr. Benjamin Letcher died at his home on Albee street Monday morning, after a long and painful illness. He suffered an attack of paralysis about two years ago and has had three strokes since, suffering for months.

Dr. Letcher was born in Garrard county, this state, September, 1832, and would have been seventy-six his next birthday. He came to this county about 1855 and has lived here ever since. He was married in the year 1858 to Miss Jane Ingram, daughter of Wm. Ingram. He attended a medical college in New York and directly after his marriage he formed a partnership with Dr. Robert Letcher and practiced medicine in this city and county. He was a sergeant during the Civil War on the Union side. He was made superintendent of the Western Kentucky Asylum during the administration of Governor Bradley. He is well and favorably known in this city and surrounding towns. His wife and five children survive him.

The children are: Mrs. W. D. Lambuth, of Seattle; Mrs. Frank Polt, of San Diego, Cal.; Dr. James H. Letcher, of Danville, Ky.; John K. Letcher, of Shelbyville; and Benjamin Letcher, of this city. Dr. J. H. Letcher is a brother.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 gallons of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep their rights they will have no living on your kidneys.

Mrs. W. I. Bailey, living on East Greenville street, Madisonville, Ky., says: "It is four years since I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills through my papers, and my confidence in them during the time which has elapsed has not been shattered in the least, but to the contrary, I learned more about them and can recommend them even more strongly. I said at that time that Mr. Bailey had suffered with kidney complaint off and on for a number of years, and had used almost every known remedy for this trouble but nothing brought permanent results. He finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box. They benefited him in every way, more so than all other kidney medicines he had ever tried. He has used them many times during the past four years, and they have never failed to give him relief from these severe attacks. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills myself for a weakened condition of the kidneys and they proved just as satisfactory in my case. We both think there is no remedy like Doan's Kidney Pills. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

"Please accept my heartiest congratulations on your nomination and the splendid victory which it implies. You will have no more earnest supporter than I, and I hope to be permitted to contribute to your success and to that of the party."

Wilmington, Del., July 10.—Upon being informed of the nomination of Mr. Bryan for President this morning, Judge Geo. Gray immediately sent the following telegram to Mr. Bryan:

PREACHER PERSECUTED

Rev. H. E. Roseberry Will Quit Mason County.

Mayeville, Ky., July 11.—The Rev. H. E. Roseberry, pastor of the M. E. church South at Sardis, this county, has resigned, and will leave in a few days to join his wife in Louisville. His resignation he says is due to several men in that neighborhood, who have made his life miserable because he preached a number of sermons against night riders, and lawlessness in Kentucky, especially Mason county, and he claims they tried to burn him up by setting fire to the parsonage on the night of June 25. He has received numerous threatening letters, the last one yesterday, telling him that he was going to be smoked out.

Cashier Parrish.

The Owensboro Messenger puts the blame of the Owensboro bank failure on the cashier in these plain words:

"James H. Parrish, bank wrecker and swindler of widows and orphans, who had himself elected to the presidency of a land company, has done about all the harm and caused about all the sorrow and misery that one man can cause. Those who are deluded into placing further confidence in this Walsh, of Owensboro, are fit subjects for the Western Kentucky asylum for the insane.

As the per cent. the depositors of the Owensboro Savings Bank and Trust company will be paid on their deposits grows smaller each day, the brass of the wrecker of the institution increases."

Parrish has been one of the most conspicuous church men in the city and his downfall is the sensation of the hour in Owensboro.

HAY 39 INCHES.

Third Crop of Alfalfa Cut By Mr. Geo. V. Green.

Hon. Geo. V. Green has just cut the third crop of alfalfa hay from a field on his farm in the suburbs of Hopkinsville. Samples of the crop shown the Kentuckians were 39 inches in length. Many farmers are experimenting with alfalfa, but Mr. Green has been more successful with the crop than any one we have heard of anywhere in the county. The hay is of the finest quality and serves all the purposes of clover without possessing its disadvantages when fed to stock.

Fought Under Six Flags.

A remarkable soldier has just died at Budapest in the person of General Stephen Turr, one of the bravest revolutionary generals that ever lived. He commenced his military career as a lieutenant in the Austrian army. Then he fought for the Hungarian revolutionary government, helped to quell a German revolution, and joined Garibaldi in his great struggle. On the outbreak of the Crimean war he served as a volunteer in Omar Pasha's army against Russia, and finally received a commission in the British transport service. It was while buying horses for the British army at Budapest in 1855 that the general was seized by the Austrians as a deserter and sentenced to death. But both the British and the French government made such emphatic protests against this sentence that it was commuted to banishment.

Adj. Gen. P. P. Johnston will be range officer of the Kentucky State rifle team when the Kentuckians contest at the national match, which will be held at Camp Perry, Ohio, in August. This is the first time that the Adjutant General has ever gone to the national rifle match. The range officer is not necessary, but it is usual to have one and the Governor desired to have Gen. AN EXPERT OPINION.

Corporate and Government Management Clearly Contrasted.

A Public Accountant Estimate of the Men Who Handle Our Great Business Enterprises—Intelligence, Economy, Honesty, at a Premium—Such Qualities Often Lacking in the Administration of Government Bureaus.

By ELIJAH W. SELLS, C. P. A.

The position of the public accountant in respect to corporations and their management is always an independent one. Unlike the attorney, he is not expected to make out a case. The character of the service he renders is impersonal. All he can do is to tell what the facts are, and they exist for his examination in forms so tangible and so subject to other scrutiny than his own that even if he were willing to prostitute his calling he would never dare to do so. It is equally true that the knowledge he obtains of the affairs of corporations is necessarily intimate, accurate and substantially complete.

We are told that the corporation managers are dishonest, that they "exploit" the people and their utilities, that they put their own enrichment above their duty to the stockholding interest or to the patronizing public and that before there can be a return of the splendid prosperity we were enjoying the corporation must be regulated and the government must step in with a sharp eye and a big stick.

My experience in the conduct of independent and impartial examinations of books of account and affairs has covered many years and has been concerned with the federal government, state governments and city governments. It has covered the field also of railway, street railway, light, power and other public service corporations. It has dealt with industrial corporations, the so called trusts. It has taken us into banks, trust companies and insurance companies, into educational and charitable institutions. I think I may say it has taken me pretty generally over the whole field of public and private business, and if I am to judge by what my eyes have seen it is the unassailable truth that almost any one of the men who stand at the head of our great business institutions is far more competent to run the government and would run it more economically, more wisely and more honestly than any of those who are in the business of running governments.

I know as a matter of fact that the management of our great properties is generally intelligent and economical and that the management of our government bureaus is generally loose, irregular and frequently dishonest. When I read the articles with which so many of our newspapers and magazines are filled nowadays reflecting on men who are engaged in developing the country's resources and when I hear the proposals of politicians from the most extreme to the least for the passage of laws to hamper and restrict the exercise of these men's powers, and when I realize that the integrity is open to suspicion my mind inevitably brings up the contrast that I always observe between a corporation's way of doing things and a government's as disclosed by their respective records and books of account.

For the purpose of this comparison I have selected two men who are competent and disinterested and who are separated. Putting them together, it is my deliberate estimate that, judged by the highest standards prevailing in the best conducted corporations, there is less than 10 per cent of better among men in the management of corporations generally and at least 50 per cent of both among public officeholders, and I base this estimate upon my experience as a public accountant.

The men intrusted with the management of the corporations are better fitted to administer the affairs of such corporations and to exercise judgment in matters concerning both the investor and the public, which takes their product or utilizes their franchise, than are those men who hold public office qualified to fill even their own positions, much less to undertake administrative control over corporations. The facts that prove this do not deal with the mere matter of honesty and efficiency. The organization of a public bureau is much less compact, much less harmonious in its operation, than the organization of a great railway or a great industrial corporation.

The men at the head of such business organizations in practically every case are experts, working diligently in harmony and ready to work to the limit of their endurance, with full and direct control of their subordinates. On the other hand, nothing can be more notorious—the results are obvious to every public accountant who investigates—than the fact that in nine cases out of ten the head of a public department spends most of his time promoting his political interests, and the employees generally, protected by the civil service regulations, are looking to see how little rather than how much work they can get into their appointed short hours.

Wasteful Government.

If we would only bring home to the people the way in which wasteful government bears upon them in their daily life, if we could only make them realize the way they are robbed by inefficiency and the fact that the taxes that are paid to support an extravagant administration in their final incidence come upon the poor, we should have everywhere recruits in the army of reform. — Governor Charles E. Hughes of New York.

GOVERNOR WILLSON

Will Not Call Extra Session
For County Unit.

Lexington, Ky., July 13.—In reply to the demand of the Southern Methodist conference of Eastern Kentucky that he call an extra session
of the legislature to pass a county unit bill, Gov. Willson has written a long letter to Mr. E. E. Evans, of this city, who drafted the original demand, explaining his position.

Gov. Willson says that the failure of the legislature to pass a county
unit bill was due to the Democratic majority in the House and Senate, aided by three Republicans, whom he does not name, and he declares he did all he could at that time to secure some legislation. He does not think, however, that he can afford to burden the people with extra payments for an extra session, especially where there is no certainty that such a bill would be passed.

The Governor hints that he may later be obliged to call a special session to provide funds for the State, and is he does this he will likely include the county unit matter.

The August Smart Set.

A novelette of unusual interest opens the August number of the Smart Set. It is called "The Diary of an Unconscious Eve," and is written by G. Vere Tyler, a writer who probably has as keen an insight into the feminine temperament as any living author. The situation on which the novel is founded is at once unique and daring, and the ending is so absolutely unlooked for that it will surprise even the most clever readers. A more original piece of work has not appeared in this magazine.

Numerous well-known writers are represented in the August issue.
Particularly interesting is Elizabeth Jornan's story, "Her Letters"; Lillian Bell, who never fails to write a lively story, contributes a bright sketch called "Dinner for Six"; Beatrix Demarest Lloyd, in "The Word and the Wise," contributes what is probably her strongest short story;
Anne Warner handles a tense situation with great art in her story,
"The Night of the Eighteenth-Ninteenth"; Mary Fenollosa's Japanese play, "The Lady of the Hair-Pins," is a remarkably vivid drama in one act, containing all the color and glamour of Japan. Other striking fiction is contributed by Elliott Flower, Jeanette I. Helm, Johnson Morton, Katharine M. Roof, Thomas L.
Masson and Vanderheyden Fyles.

The poetry is of the usual excellence and is written by John G.
Nelhardt, Florence Earle Coates,
Madison Cawein, Archibald Sullivan,
Elsa Barder and Charles Hanson Towne.

resentatives include Vice President

BLOWN TO PIECES.

Farmer Who Sold Tobacco In Spite Of Threats.

Cincinnati, O., July 14.—A threshing machine belonging to George Linderman, a farmer living in Campbell Co., Ky., was blown to pieces
last Saturday night.

Blasting powder was used and the work is believed to have been that of a gang of night riders. Some time ago Linderman received a notice from the riders warning him not to sell his last year's crop of tobacco,
but he did not take the warning seriously and sold the tobacco, which is believed to have been the cause of the destruction of his machine. Loss $1,000.

Chicago, July 13.—Street car traf-

while passing the City Hall, gave birth to a girl baby. The woman was on the way to a hospital, accompanied by a nurse. Dr. I. G. Rawlins, a physician attached to the City Health Department, was called, and later both mother and child were taken in a police ambulance to the hospital.

SIX PERSONS INJURED.

Automobile Goes Through Damaged Bridge.

Louisville, Ky., July 15.—Six persons were seriously injured in an automobile accident early Monday at Smithville, twenty-three miles out.
They are:

Shelby Bonnie, a prominent dis-tiller, leg broken; Mrs. Shelby Bonnie, bad cuts; Miss Elizabeth Sherley, serious bruise; Richard Menefree, a merchandise broker, internal injuries, condition serious. Dr. Carl Wiseman, leg broken; Sam Ball, chauffeur, badly bruised.

The party were returning from Bowling Green, where they had spent yesterday. Reaching Salt River, they started across a bridge, not knowing that a portion of the structure was recently blown away by a storm. The automobile dashed 25 feet into Salt River, turning completely over. In some miraculous manner one end of the car rested on an obstruction, thus preventing the party from being drowned. The injured were brought to their homes in Louisville.

WILL SUPPORT BRYAN.

Labor Leader Calls on the Nominee and Gives His Adhesion.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 13.— Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor and inferentially the head of three million voters of organized labor affiliated with the federation, will support William J. Bryan in the coming Presidential campaign. In political circles here today this announcement overshadowed all others, even the arrival of John W. Kern, the Vice Presidential nominee. Reports gained currency that the labor leader would speak from the platform during the campaign but he made no such announcement. At present it is believed there is no need for Mr.
Gompers' service in an oratorical sense. The Republican Convention, he asserts, ignored the demands of labor, the Democrats acknowledged them in their platform. His course is clear; he will do what is demanded of him in the interests of labor, best expressed in the platform adopted at Denver. As the situation is at present, Mr. Gompers' efforts can be better expended elsewhere than on the speaker's stand.

In his interview with Mr. Bryan,
Mr. Gompers was attended by Frank Morrison, secretary of the Federation, and James Duncan, also a labor leader.

New Order Applicable to Sunday Closing.

A more rigid construction of the Sunday closing law was put into effect Sunday. The new order requires a written application to be made to the chief of police for a permit, who will detail an officer to accompany the owner or agent. All cleaning up is required to be done before daylight on Sunday and any one entering a saloon on Sunday for any purpose, without a special permit, will be liable to a fine of $5 and costs.

The articles were prepared in Cadiz.

CHARLIE DAVIS.

Hopkinsville Brick Mason Shoots A Memphis Man.

Chas. H. Davis, a brickmason formerly of this city, shot a man named L. M. Ragsdale, in Memphis, Tenn., a few days ago. A quarrel came up over a game of cards in a saloon. Davis claimed that he had won a quarter, which Ragsdale paid under protest. Davis went out and got a shot-gun and appeared at a side door and fired on Ragsdale, who tried to run to a place of safety. The lead struck him in the shoulder. Davis was arrested as he was getting ready to shoot again. He is in custody charged with shooting with intent to kill. Ragsdale's wound is not fatal.

NEW POSTAL RULING.

Press Not Allowed to Reprint Articles Advocating Anarchy.

In its issue of April 8 the Hopkinsville Independent published an article advocating anarchy, which was credited to the Up-to-Date Farmer. An expurgated reproduction of the same article, credited to the By-Stander, of Los Angeles, Cal., appeared in the Pembroke Journal of April 10. One or two other papers in this section reprinted portions of the article.

The boldness of the article aroused a storm of protest that was heard in Washington and as a result Postmaster Brethitt has received a new ruling from the Postoffice Department excluding from the mails any paper guilty of publishing such articles in the future. It is not known whether or not the authorities have communicated directly with the publishers of the papers that reprinted the unlawful article.
